HOLDEN, MO.

By CHAS. PRATT.

Mr. Archie Lee of Kansas City and his sister were down last week to spend a few days with their sick brother. Miss Georgia Jacobs has been on the sick list. Mr. Edward Harden left this week for Kansas City where he has a job promised. Mrs. B. B. Tully has been quite ill but is somewhat better at this writing. Prof. H. W. Berton and Mrs. Stella Combs attended the Institute at Sedalia, Mo., last week. A splendid game of ball was played last Thursday. The score was Harrisonville 2 and Holden 1. Mrs. Anna Hammonds of Warrensburg is spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. Emma Owens. Acacia Lodge No. 62 had their election of officers last Saturday, as follows: Henry Johnson, W. M.; Chas. Pratt, J. W.; Ben Simpson, S. W.; Henry Evans, treasurer; Prof. Thompson, S. T.; J. Jones, T. R. The Ramblers struck hard luck in a game with Centerville who scored 4 to Holden's 2. The Black Stockings will play next, the two best game out of three. Little George Little, who got his arm broken, is getting along nicely. Rev. Sumnerville preached a splendid sermon last Sunday at the M. E. church. Out-of-town visitors were Mr. Earl Carmichael, Ellis Shockley, Luther Nash, all of Chilhowee. Miss Katherine Jacobs is visiting in Warrensburg this week. Prof. T. R. Perkins and wife attended the children's day program at Centerville, where he was engaged as organist, also his wife assisted with the singing.

ST. JOSEPH, MO.

Friday, May 28, the Bartlett High school had Parents' day. The rooms were decorated with the excellent work of the pupils. The sophomore class rendered a program in the afternoon. An elegant sermon was preached to the graduates in the afternoon of May 20 at the A. M. E. church by Rev. N. C. Buren, the pastor. He also delivered a splendid sermon to the old soldiers at the evening service. May 31, at the Francis Street Baptist church, the Calliopean Society vs. Phi Kappa had an oratorical contest in which the latter was victorious and won the silver cup. The seniors of the High school, assisted by the students of other classes, appeared before a large audience Tuesday evening, June 1, in a class play, "A Nautical Knot," which was a success. The Athletic club of the High school held its annual outing at Lake Contrary Thursday afternoon, June 3. Thursday, June 3, the class of the Bartlett High school gave an operetta, "The Berry Pickers." The commencement was Friday, June 4. The class roll was: Jordan Chown, Marion C. Carpenter, John C. Foster, Meredith Lee, Lewis Madenason, Avis Martin, Richard V. Montgomery, Jessie R. Pettis, Georgia D. Powell. "Find a way or make one," the motto. The body of W. W. Smith, who died in Chicago, was brought here for interment. A sister and nephew survive him. Mr. John Guthrie has been quite ill. Mrs. Smith Crews is ill. The K. T. will hold their annual sermon at New Hope Baptist church.

LEXINGTON, MO.

Mr. Arthur Payne of Kansas City has been in the city since Saturday in the interest of the Clover Leaf Insurance Company. Miss Glover Hawkins left Tuesday morning for Kansas City where she will have some dental work done. Mrs. Maggie McKinney and little daughter, Ruby, left Tuesday morning for Kansas City where they will remain a few days, and then will go to Bloomington, Ill., for an indefinite stay. Mr. Wm. Holmes still remains quite ill at his home on North 24th street. Mrs. Hudson was called recently to Leavenworth, Kas., to be at the bedside of her uncle, who is quite ill. The U. B. F. and S. M. T. had their annual sermon preached Sunday afternoon at the Second Baptist church by Rev. W. H. Smith, the pastor of St. John M. E. church. Quite a number were present.

ORIN, WYO.

Mr. E. J. Brookins, who has been with the C. & N. W. railway for about four years in charge of the lunch counter, has resigned to go into the restaurant business at Decatur, Ill., with Mr. Dan Winston of that city. As both are expert restaurateurs there is no doubt but that the place will be a success. Mr. H. Brown took the place of Mr. Brookins. We feel sure that Mr. Brown will make good, as he is a good waiter. We are having plenty of rain and the gardens are out of business at present.

CHILLICOTHE, MO.

Mrs. Evans of Brunswick, Mo., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Evans. Prof. Vergil Williams, who closed a successful school term at Farmington, Mo., arrived last Tuesday. An entertainment was given at the residence of Mr. Daniel Towors last Friday evening by the K. of P's. Despite the unfavorable weather the entertainment was well attended. This order is composed of energetic men and under the leadership of Mr. Herbert Beach every undertaking is a success. Children's day was observed at the churches Sunday afternoon. Adults vied with the children in making it a memorable occasion. The Priscilla Art Club was entertained at the residence of Mrs. Gertrude Johnson with Miss Jones of Macon, Mo., Miss Evans of St. Joseph, Mo., Miss Drake of Carrollton, Mo., and Misses Odessa Hillman and Sadie Saunders as guests.

JOPLIN, MO.

Mr. A. L. Ford has an up-to-date cleaning and pressing parlor at 106 Broadway street. Old stand of St. Paul cafe. Joe Washington was in Carthage and Galena Sunday with the Sun. Mrs. Lula Montgomery departed from this city last week and she will spend the summer traveling in the South. Miss Ester Wright has returned from Coffeyville, Kas., where she has been visiting her mother for some time. Mrs. Kate Pearson, a pioneer of Joplin, died Monday morning at 9 o'clock. A daughter and son survive her. Little Reuben Hightower is in St. Louis with his father, whom he had not seen in four years. He is 7 years old. The Unity Baptist church services were good. The K. of P's installed new officers Tuesday night. Refreshments were served in the basement by the junior choir. Services at Unity chapel were good Sunday. Rev. W. J. DeBoe has returned from Topeka. Rev. Robinson preached an excellent sermon. Unity Baptist church will observe children's day next Sunday. Mr. R. E. Johnson of Joplin lectured in Carthage Sunday to a crowded house. Dr. Dial, former Joplin physician, is now a leader in the Sunday school in Carthage. See Joe Washington for all kinds of Negro literature. Phone 2393M, 107 Second street. Stand Bann & Howard's barber shop.

MOBERLY, MISSOURI.

The musical entertainment given at Grant Chapel under the management of Prof. L. B. Quinn was a grand affair. Both instrumental and vocal music was rendered. It was indeed a rare treat to sit and listen to the sweet voices and melodious music. The musical pianoforte given at the Pilgrim First Baptist church, Friday, June 11, was excellent. Miss Russell, teacher of music at Western College, Macon, Mo., and Master Lemuel Russell were the participants. Mrs. Goins departed this life at Hannibal, Mo., and her body was brought here for burial under the auspices of the Heroines of Jericho, of which she had been a faithful member. The Rev. Ponder officiated. Mrs. Marie Evans is reported somewhat better. A grand drill given June 18 at Pilgrim Rest Baptist church. A musical was given the 18th at Grant Chapel by Club No. 4. Rev. Ponder has all of his forces well organized looking forward to the rally the third Sunday in July. Just read the Sun to get the news.

TROY, KANSAS.

Miss Mintie Wilkinson visited in Elwood last Sunday, the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. A. McCurry. Rev. P. W. Weaver, Mrs. Pearl Sportman, Miss Maurine Weaver, Mrs. Mollie Brown and Mrs. Mary Schumacher are attending the A. M. E. Sunday school convention and district conference in Leavenworth this week. Mr. Chas. Schumacher was in Hiawatha one day the past week and purchased a driving team. Mr. George Estes and Mrs. Jettie Johnson have been quite indisposed, but are much better at this writing. Miss Sarah Hathaway of Highland, Kas., is attending the institute this week. Rev. Wm. Enyard of Kansas City, Kas., stopped in our city between trains last Saturday while en route to White Cloud, Kas., to preach the annual sermon of the U. B. F. and S. M. T. He will also preach the annual sermon for the U. B. F. and S. M. T. and the Eastern Star chapter of this city Sunday morning at 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m., respectively. Mr. Paul Taylor, who has been in Iowa for some time, has returned to the city to stay indefinitely. Mrs. Katie Lightle and daughter, Miss Lizzie were shopping in St. Joseph Saturday. Mr. Leland visited in Plattsburg, Mo., from Sunday until Tuesday. Mr. Charles Schumacher, Mrs. Mollie Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Lair and daughter, Miss Elsie, Mr. Stanley Snoddy and Mrs. Nelle E. Howard motored to White Cloud Sunday to attend the annual sermon.

SALISBURY, MISSOURI.

The storm June 10 did lots of damage. The home of David Nickles was shattered and Mrs. Nickles was injured. The A. M. E. church was blown from its foundation and also the Baptist church. Rev. G. C. Chinn of Poplar Bluff was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Black. He is the ex-pastor of the Baptist church and preached a noble sermon Wednesday night. Prof. C. W. Black of Plattsburg and wife are visiting relatives here. The Baptist church raised $97.50 and the A. M. E. church $113.75.
